“ To The Family of Wayne..That's what I've known him as:-) This is my 3rd attempt of sending my condolences to the family..Everytime I try to type,my hands would tremble soo bad..Wayne was a beautiful person.My family and I were one of the first people he met when he moved here from Indiana.He had a beautiful soul and the most friendliest guy you could ever meet.He used to crack me up when I say a comment and he would say "Ain't it?" That would make me laugh soo hard.He would use that phrase after a sentence,a question..it didn't matter.He would have me rollin'! He would always check on my mom before and after she became ill.Our family was so forever grateful for him...God Bless his Family and give them strength and understanding.

“ To the Ross and Roberts Family, It will be the little things that you will remember, the quiet moments,
the smiles, the laughter.
And although it may seem hard right now,
it will be the memories of these little things and your belief in God that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again.you all are in my prayers, just keep the FAITH...

“ Al was one of the coolest guys around. He was a great dad, an amazing loving husband and a general Godly man. I am at a loss for words and cannot imagine the way that you guys are feeling right now. He always made me laugh and I even would tell my family members about how he noticed all of my "bad kids." Ryan was looking forward to hanging out at the house with him on Sundays when I had to work. We are going to miss Al. But I hope that you all can find comfort in the fact that if we live a life that is pleasing to God - like he did - then we will see Al again. Hold on, joy comes in the morning. love you guys “ Mrs. Glynda Ross I was taking away when I read the Oakland Press. I want you to know that God will not put too much on you. I remember when I first met you and Al at Oakland New Life. Al always had a big smile on his face showing his love for you. Remember the good times you two shared and you will reunite in Heaven. I'm praying for you and your family. God Bless the entire Ross Family!

“ Hello,

My name is Pamela Traeye. I just wanted to take this time to send my condolences to the family. I too have lost a loved one in my lifetime. Did you know that the bible makes it clear that God did not originally intend for humans to die? (Gen 1:28) The bible also tells us that God has the power to bring the dead back to life and that he will do just that!! Isaiah 26: 19 states, "Your dead ones will live... They will rise up". Jesus further reminds us at John 5: 28, 29 " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." If you would like to find out more about God and his promise of the resurrection, please contact me at my email address pamelatraeye@hotmail.com.
