“ From your sister Linda.....To the my family, friends and friends of Alex (Fatman)

We as believers know that death is a separation of our soul from the earthly body to go and be present with Lord. For we know if our earthly body was dissolved, we have a building of God; a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens . Therefore we are always confident, I say, that you are walking in heaven with the Lord Fatman hug mom and Garry for me, they are still with me also, as you are. When you guys set with the angels and are listening to the Lord remember all of us and release a prayer to cover and protect us. Your brother in-love Gregory says he's going to miss you.

Sending love from your nephew Shunon(BJ), you niece Rhonesia (Ronnie) our hearts are overwhelmed but this is not goodbye, it's see you later....

Know that the Lord sent an angel ahead of him to guard and guide him along the way to the place he had prepared for him where the streets are made of gold
