“ Alfred and I grew up together on the "eastside" of Pontiac. We attended Wilson Elementary, Eastern Jr High, and Pontiac Central, / The Yellow Brick together, and both graduated in 1972 from the Yellow Brick. He was my friend for as long as I can remember. I last saw Alfred, a few years ago when I was in L. A. , he drove down and he and I talked through the night ,first at a bar and then driving around L.A. talking about growing up in Pontiac and all the good times we had. When it came time for me to depart L.A., we hugged and both said ,I love you!!!

I'm so saddened by Al's passing. I will never forget him and will carry life long memories of BIG AL with me for the remainder of my life.

Until we meet again... your friend
