Mr. Alvin Corey "Big Al" Fair was born to Angelia Fair and Alvin Rhodes on May 1, 1980 in Detroit, Michigan. Al was educated in the Detroit and Pontiac School Systems. He absolutely loved school and the teachers he had down through the years. They always gave Al special treats and gifts. When Alvin was eleven years old, he received a kidney from a nineteen year old man by the name of Denzel McCain, after being on dialysis for a couple of years. Upon Mr. McCain's passing, his family gave Al the gift of life. This kidney lasted until November of last year, which forced "Big Al" onto dialysis for a second time. On May 23, 2007, God whispered, "Alvin", you have fought a good fight, come home and take your rest.

Mr. Alvin Corey "Big Al" Fair leaves forever cherishing his memory: mother, Angelia Fair; father, Robert; sister, Kami; and many loving and caring family members, professionals, and friends.
