“ Amy was always so giving and a wonderful mother and cook. She loved her boys so much. I never forget getting her homemade chocolate cupcakes and finding an oreo cookie surprise at the bottom of the cupcake. Such a wonderful person.

“ As a former neighbor, friend and travel companion; I have several fond memories of Amy Stanley-Lee. Amy was very well known for her humor. Like her Mother, she never met a stranger. Her piercing sound of laughter will never be forgotten.

“ Amy was so sweet and faithful. Always ready with a smile, always wanting her help to be given in quiet ways. She never sought recognition but never turned down an opportunity to help.

Attending meetings was difficult for her because of her allergies, but she came anyway, because she had a testimony of the restored gospel of Jesus Christ.

Once when we were having a Relief Society activity about cooking, she agreed to bring her prized cupcakes to share. Instead of telling about them herself, she had Kenway give the presentation. He was just a little guy, but he handled it like a pro, and her smile lit up the whole room as she listened to him speak.
