Mrs. Ana Castro was born June 6, 1978 in Santa Ana, El Salvador, the daughter of Regina Aguilar and Manuel Castro. Ana was a hard worker that always set goals for her to reach and accomplish to show how strong our family was all the time. Ana loved to be around her kids at their Soccer games and school activities, because she never had the opportunity to do sports when she was a child. She received a diploma for cooking her junior year of high school, and became a really good cook for the Capital Grille in Troy, Michigan. Church wasn't really a requirement for Ana but her faith in God was so that it was unbelievable. Ana Castro was a great mother and person overall.

Mrs. Castro leaves to cherish her memory: husband, Edward Lemus of Pontiac, MI; four sons, Irvin, Leo, Christopher and Byron Castro; parents,

Regina Aguilar and Manuel Castro; two sisters, Orbelina and Martha Castro; brother, Jose Castro; mother and father-in-law, Maria Nunez and Santiago Lemus; two sisters-in-law, Jesica and Wendy Lemus; and a host of other relatives including special friends, Rosa, Angela, Georgina, Geovany and Minan Nunez, Zulejma Caballero, William and Delcy Calderon, Rubidia Zavala, Irma Hernandez, Liliana Luna Alan Contreras.

Mrs. Castro was preceded in death by her father, Manuel Castro; Cristian Lopez Castro.

The family would like to express special thanks to all our family and friends who's been supporting us through good and bad times God bless you all.
