“ Going to miss our FB conversations even though we were closer than FB. I have truly lost a family member. I know we go back at least 30 years (Washington Park days). I am so saddened. I want your siblings to know that I am always here for them and I love you all so much. R.I.H.P. my sweetie with your high pitched voice trying to explain everything back in the day, I have to smile because you were smiling or laughing while telling me what happened with neighbors, lol. Smile on for Jesus Christ where your heavenly spirit resides.

“ Our friendship is the perfect example that friendships are forever. I cherish the time even more now that we had together, and will always love you miss you buddy, friend, neighbor, homegirl, rest in peace....
And to the family it's a very hard time losing a sister it hurts deeply especially, and especially a big one. I know your pain it's been 9 years since I lost mine and I still miss her every day, I pray your strength in the Lord, love you all “ Just seems like I'm in a dream, can't forget that high pitch voice. I'll miss her so much on our FB conversations but she will always be in my heart, even though she wasn't old enough to be my child, but felt back in the day like I was another mother to her and her siblings. She was always respectable to me. I know she was an impact in my life as well as I was in hers during our Washington Park days. I love you sweetie, rest in heavenly peace. My prayers and condolences up to the entire Foster Family.
