“ Angelo Merkerson is remembered as a plucky young man who embodied all of the great Christian values instilled in him by his mother, Mrs. Alice Merkerson and the late Pastor Charles Nicks.

As fellow parishioners at St. James Missionary Baptist church we shared unique family like bonds because of the great sense of connectiveness promoted by the outstanding family. May he rest in peace and the family has my sincerest condolences.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Psalm 23:4

“ My prayers and heartfelt sympathy are extended to this loving Mother and the entire family.

Angelo served well as an Acolyte at the St. James Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Pastor Charles Nicks, Jr.

I am certain the entire Merkerson Family has some precious memories of their years at St. James. This is the time to rely on what you know God can and will do for you in times like these. Hold on to your faith. Be encouraged. Remember weeping may endure for a night, but JOY cometh in the morning.
