“ Annette, We just met again a few months ago, our last conversation, was such a blessing. You was so optimisted. Every since I,ve known you, you was such a Holy woman. You proved that being a virtous woman is not an option , its the God kind of life. I'll keep the family up in prayer,we were suppose to go to the golden corral. We had a lot in common, you were always so nice to me and my daughters. I remember those dinners on Sunday in Port Huron. Your homegoing is bringing my NMMIC and my Port Huron family together. Look at God. See you in heaven. You finished your course and kept the Faith.
