Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home - March 07 at 10:47 AM

A beautiful tribute to my awesome nephew. With tears and laughter my soul is cleansed and refreshed.

Thank you Cobb's Funeral Home for making and sharing this video for family and friends living at a distance and unable to attend in person. Seeing family members and my son, Jeff Barge, offered me great comfort.

May GOD bless you as you continue to give.

My cup runneth over,

“ My heart has been heavy and sorrowful since hearing of the passing of my nephew, Craig.

Darlings, Renita, Pepi, Rita and precious grandchildren, our FATHER, in Heaven will provide the peace and comfort you're needing right now. HE loves you and will NEVER leave you.

Our sentimental journey, includes Craig, and now exists in sharing joyful memories and appreciations for one another.

Craig shared his own special kinds of love individually with each of us. Let's embrace it.

My cup runneth over,

Aunt Callie

“ Anthony Craig,

As far back as I can remember you've been my sidekick. From childhood to adulthood you've been my sidekick .Our adventures and antics have been hilarious and so real! From the Hills, the Knolls and all around Pontiac, , we were there. Dude my heart is grieving and the tears won't stop. I'll always remember how you comforted me during those dark periods oèy life and expected nothing in return. Weather your comfort was displayed through laughter, touch memorories, it was deeply appreciated. I also recall your love for my fathers extensive jazz collection of albums (which i still have).

Suffice it to say cuz I'm so happy that God made us family and you've made a an impact on my life for ever.. Loving you always and forever.

“ To Pepi, Renita, Reta, Madison and Mason along with the entire Barge family in the loss of your brother, father, and grandfather I ask for God's comfort in your grief and eternal peace for Craig. May each of you be strengthened in the days, weeks, months, and years ahead as you come to terms with his now empty seat. We thank God for the gift of Craig's life for 62 years and the memories he leaves behind. Prayers are up emphasizing that you each will find hope in the eternal reunion yet to come, cherishing his legacy, and navigating the pain of each of your loss. Know this: there is still no sorrow on earth that heaven cannot heal. I love you each and leave you in God's peace, forever love, and eternal care as He mends  your broken  hearts as only He can.

“ *My sincere condolences go out over my niece, Reta, and the rest of Craig's family.
When Reta was little I use to tease her by saying that if it wasn't for me she wouldn't be here. In 1984 Pepe was my track coach at Lincoln Jr High. This is when Craig and my sister reintroduced themselves (they both attended PNH). Craig was a cool dude to talk with; him with his sleepy eyes and spoken drawl. I thank God that He in His timing chose to call Craig home to reunite with mom and dad. God bless and keep those who remain here in this world.*

To the Barge family, may our heavenly father strengthen and cover you during this time of transition. When you think of Craig, let the memories of all the love and fun times you shared together with family and friends out weigh the pain and wipe away the tears of sorrow. Know that he is at peace with the Lord Jesus awaiting the day of resurrection .

Love
