“ To Muzette & Family,
We were blessed to meet you and Tony at Greater Mt. Calvary. We smiled when we saw you two. In our eyes, you two were the perfect couple. It broke our hearts to hear that Tony had passed. We are still grasping this reality that he is gone. We pray that God will comfort you and the family always. 🙏❤️

“ I was saddened to hear of Anthony’s passing. I pray God’s peace to family members and friends left to cherish his memory. A cherished memory is the wonderful role he played in his sister, Karen’s, wedding. I got the chance to learn much more about Anthony that weekend. He was a made that loved family and cherished peace. His memory will be cherished and he is missed already!

“ I fondly recall my last walk and chat with Tony in July 2019. We chatted about family and the need for togetherness and the importance of moral support. A most cherished memory is his participation in his sister Karen’s wedding! Happy reunion with your parents and brothers, dear Tony! Loving memories, Aunt Lucie.
