“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ On behalf of my son, Max. I only met Logan one or two times yet he & my son were close friends in Vegas over the last 3 - 4 years. While my son was not able to be there he asked me to extend his heartfelt grief and condolences to the Logan Family. As a mother - I abhor this senseless violence and grieve along with All of you. May your hearts be calmed and may this Young One rest in peace. xo ~

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. We look forward to the consoling fact, that one day we will see our loved ones again, by means of a RESURRECTION.(John 5:28,29) A promise from our God Jehovah and his son, Jesus Christ. May you find comfort and peace in that scripture.

“ *Dear Odessa and Mr Logan,
My condolences to you both and to everyone that knew Antonio for this is a loss for everyone. Antonio was a wonderful child and a very warm adult. It seems like just yesterday that I gave him his first Mohawk haircut, just yesterday we came up with our own handshake just yesterday we watched his crossover move at Pontiac Northern. Tommorrow is a lot less appealing without him thank God for the great memories with him.

“ *Dear Logan Family,
Sorry to read about Antonio. Its sad to see this happen to someone so young with so much to look forward to. Despite the pain take comfort in the hope of seeing him again (John 5:28,29). In a world free of sickness, pain and violence (Psalm 37:10,11). Their he can be reunited with loved ones and reach his full potential.*

“ I remember when I got the calls asking me if it was true... I was confused as for what being true.. then when I was informed of your passing all i could do was stop what i was doing and call you, just to hear LUNDY my baby whats good?? one more time, but that was not the case... I remember when we 1st meet at Longfellow, I was a Panther cheerleader and you were a football player, and you asked me why I sounded so different, i didnt understand but then i noticed that it was my proper speaking lol even though we came from 2 different worlds we still managed to understand one another the best we could.... When my mom told me that I go to PNH i was esactic but when i got there and saw you words cant explain how i felt seeing someone that I knew..... I close my eyes and I see your smiling face and hear your laughter... You had a smile that lite up a room and a laugh that made everyone wanna laugh... The memories we made back in our "FREAKY TIKI" days are priceless.... GME baby the start of it all!!! lol May you rest in peace... And until we meet again know that I LOVE YOU BUDDY AND YOU WILL TRULY BE MISSED!!! MY PRAYS ARE WITH YOU MOTHER, FATHER, CHILDREN AND FAMILY..... YOU WILL NOT BE FORGOTTEN #Justice4Logan

“ I was sad to hear about the loss of Antonio. I just remember hooping at the boys and girls club all day, having fun you and lee always trying to be the first ones with the new jordans everytime they came out. Coaching you on that club team when you were in the 9th grade running the pg. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family. He was a great person
