“ To a man that was God-fearing, a Loving Husband & Father, Grandfather and a Praying Man. A man who was laid back and a family man to many. A devoted man, a well rounded man, my neighbor and friend Mr. Threets. Growing up on Henry Clay we had the true Village that raised children and if you thought you could get away with anything you better think again, Mr. Threet was a man with few words UNLESS he felt like you needed that talk, then it was a different story....lol I know i'd enjoyed my talks with him, To my friend Melissa, just know i'm here whenever you need me. Just a phone call away. To Mrs. Threets, Cheryl, Stevie, Roddy my Prayer will continually be with you all.
Love you all,

“ To My Bishop. You are loved and will never be forgotten. He used to always call me, "Prince Williams In a skirt" cause he said I look so much like my dad, Apostle Lonnie F Williams Sr. We love you Bishop and your sweet spirit and genuine heart. None other like you. Rest In Heaven in the arms of God. Your spirit lives on. God bless your family.
