“ To my friend, who was more like my sister (who are we kidding, she was my sister - you can tell by the arguments):

"In my Father's House are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you." Audrey, do me a favor after you talk with Jesus again (because I'm sure you've already seen him) - could you ask him to preserve my mansion right next to you? It would only make sense, given that your hubby told me that a long time ago, when we were at Belle Isle Park, I threw you in the Detroit River because you were talking too much (lol). I can't remember it myself, it's been too long and other things have helped me not to remember, but I think I'd like to try tossing you in again (lol), just on the celestial planes this time, where my memory will be great. I'm sure you'll think of something to make me want to do it again ;)

I love you girl, my ace boon coon. This is not goodbye, it's a "see you later." My heart is aching. And to Bud, the girls, the grandchildren, your sibilings and the entire family, I'm so very very sorry for this deep loss.

*With love,
Jean*
