“ It said that the great die young... now I truly believe that... You didnt live the life we wanted you to live but you are a bigger hero then all of us. You were born to save lives and to teach us that we are not invinsable, that we have to live our lives the way god wants us to. You taught us to hug again, to kiss again, to care again, to feel something inside that we have never felt, to lean on one another, and for some to realize what we got shouldnt be realized when you had left us but to realize it while its here...Thank you little D... for everything...ur FOREVER in our hearts

“ Baby Darius, you are my pride and joy and I miss you so very much. I am trying to pick up the pieces of my broken heart and I look at your pictures every day and smile when I remember your big beautiful eyes to help mend my heart. I am so grateful that you came into my life even if it was for a very short time. You taught me about a very special love that only a grandparent can have for their grandchild and I thank you for that. You will always be in my heart and I will never forget you, you will always be my little man. I love you with all of my heart always and forever and you will never be forgotten. You gave the greatest gift of all of yourself by helping the other children you saved, you are truly a hero and an angel....Love always, Grandma.

There are no words to describe how hurt & saddened we were to lose you so soon but also very blessed that you came into our lives. There's always comfort in knowing that we will all see each other again once we return home with our Heavenly Father. “ Darius,
Our most gracious Lord has called a special angel back home for a special reason. We will never know why. I had the great fortune of knowing your grandma Liz and heard all the stories of your Mom growing up. I know that you were truly loved during your short time here, because the Pena/Woods family knew no other way to be. May God watch over you and protect you. I pray that God wraps his loving arms around your family in this most difficult time.
In Love and Friendship,
