“ Ben was truly an older cousin that always made sure that his younger cousins stayed in check. He always let us know that if we needed him, he would be available within reason. He will truly be missed by all of us, especially in the way he told stories about growing up which was always told in a way that kept us laughing whenever he was around.

Ben will truly be missed by all of us.

"Ben you gave a good fight, now rest and we will see you again."

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is such a painful time. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this most difficult time. Please read Isaiah 26:19, Psalm 37:29 and John Chapter 11.

“ What Hope for Dead Loved Ones?

*Well, the Bible makes the promise:
"Your dead ones will live... They will rise up." And the Bible also says: The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it.
(Isaiah 26:19; Psalm 37:29)*

To have real confidence in such promise, we need to answer some basic questions: Why do people die? Where are the dead? And how can we be sure they can live again?

*The Bible makes it clear that God did not originally intend for humans to die. He created the first human pair Adam and Eve,
placed them in an earthly Paradise called Eden, and instructed them to have children and extend their Paradise home earth wide. They would die only if they disobeyed
his instructions. (Genesis 1:28 2:15-17)*
