“ To my family...Those who have sorrow, pain and crying here on earth can be comforted knowing that there will be a day when we will feel none of these things, but know that God has given us the strength to fight through sorrow and pain on this earth. Bet will always be in our hearts and memories. She will always be a true Queen. She taught me the true meaning of patience and commitment. To my Baby Pookie, I signed up for this day 40+ years ago, know that I am here and will be. I don't take my responsibility lightly. May God strengthen and comfort you all today and the days to come. He's a whisper away. Know that God has her and there is no better place to be than with our creator. Love you all!
