Betty Spillman was born July 19, 1926 in Louisville, Kentucky. She was the youngest of three beautiful daughters to the late Arnett Spillman and Florence Bass as an adult Betty moved to Los Angeles, California where she worked for Gillette for many years upon retirement Betty relocated to Pontiac, Michigan to live her life like it was golden and that she did while doing some puzzles and a few trips to the casino every now and then. There aren't enough kind words to describe just how beautiful of a person Betty was. She was captivating, loving, sweet, just one-in-a Million. But most importantly she was family oriented she was the matriarch of the "Ross" family for many years her happiness solely in her family and she cherished them so much.

She leaves to cherish her wonderful memories her very special nieces, Darlene Threets and Marieca Ross; loving nephews, Adriel Ross, Ronald (Shelby) Ross, Wade (Judy) Ross, David Ross and Phillip Ross and a host of loving great nieces and great nephews, family and friends and special friends, Maxine McFerrin and Geneva Quinn.

Ms. Spillman was preceded in death by parents, Florence Virginia Spillman and Arnett Spillman and nephew, Gregory Ross.
