Ms. Beverly Ann Moncrief affectionately called "Beab" was born July 24, 1953 in Pontiac, Michigan, the daughter of the late Cessie Ree Cooper and Shelly Moncrief, Sr. She confessed Christ at an early age. "Beab" attended Booker T. Washington in Montgomery, Alabama and graduated from Pontiac Public School System. She worked diligently at WHRC in the lunch room, and was also employed at Phoenix Center and Pontiac General Hospital. Her warm smile soul and big smile shined bright. She loved to dance, would send morning inspirational text messages. She really had a green thumb and played Maze and Frankie Beverly for her plants they grew to the ceiling she would share them with her family and friends.

Ms. Moncrief leaves to cherish her memory: loving sons, Deon (Demetria) Moncrief, Marsellis "Squirt" and Eugene Moncrief; adored sister, Eddie "Mae"

(Melvin) Johnson; special nephews that she nurtured and raised, Antwaun (Delina) Johnson and Taevin Johnson, Robert Jackson, Dionte (Anna) Moncrief and DeAndre Moncrief, and Willie "FlatTop" Thomas; grandchildren, DeAndre Woods and Kadejah Moncrief; great-grand-daughter, Sade Rose; niece, Laura Thomas and Cassandra (Miquel) Rixner; sisters-in-law, Shirley Moncrief and Nancy Haynes; loving cousins, Charles Moncrief, Alonzo (Evelyn) Moncrief and Rosetta Jackson; and a host of other relatives and friends including best friends, Dorothy "Bae Bae" Dillworth and Clarita Laws, Mike Arnold and Allen Love.

Ms. Moncrief was preceded in death by her parents, Cessie Ree and Shelly Moncrief; brothers, Willie Penn, James Haynes and Shelly Moncrief, Jr.

“ Beab was like my mom. She often referred to me as her daughter n law. She was a Strong Influence on my children upbringing!! She never allowed anyone to disrespect her home when her grandkids were visiting. Beab held her responsibility as a mother, grandmother at high regards. There will never be another like her. Thank you much for being my village!! Granny Beab Aunt Mae always showed my kids extra special attention their whole lives. A Grandmother Love is something so very special!! Beab will be deeply missed. I truly appreciate our talks as mother to daughter. I Love You I will never forget you!! From laughing to cooking or to explaining to me what it takes to be a great mother!!!

Bev always greeted me with a kind word and a friendly smile. I don't believe she ever met a stranger. Though many people loved her, God loved her best. She will truly be missed. - Barbara Walker
