Beverly Jean Graham was welcomed into the world on April 24, 1949, by parents Mary L. Graham and late Rev. Thomas L. Graham. She bid farewell to family and friends before dawn on Wednesday, April 21, 2021, at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Oakland after an extended illness.

Fondly known as "Jeanie" to family, Beverly excelled in her secondary education in Pontiac Public Schools and at Oakland University. She was a single mom and a work/study student in the Division of Student Affairs while earning her bachelor's degree in Accounting from the OU School of Business Administration. Equipped with that credential and years of accounting experience, she served as Internal Auditor for the City of Pontiac for many years.

Beverly accepted Christ in her youth at Liberty Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of founding Pastor, Rev. S.M. Edwards. She was active in Sunday School, Youth and Young Adult Choirs, Youth Department, BYPU and Metropolitan District Youth Auxiliary. She was also a pianist for Liberty's Youth and Young Adult Choirs and played with a special anointing. As an adult, Beverly joined New Mt. Moriah International Church under the leadership of Bishop William H. Murphy Jr.

Anyone who knew "Stubbs" knew that she loved being surrounded by family and friends. She was elated at the birth of her daughter, Adrienne, with her late ex-husband, Clyde Stubbs. Later, she became "Grannie" not only to her own grandchildren, but to their friends as well! Beverly didn't hesitate to feed or otherwise assist anyone who was in need; and she was a loyal daughter, sister and friend. She was really in her element when hosting holiday gatherings.

Beverly leaves to celebrate her life daughter, Adrienne R. Davis; mother, Mary L. Graham; five grandchildren, Jamari Chunn, Janae Chunn, Jaylen Chunn, Jawan Snoddy and Allante' Davis; three great grandchildren, Ka'Oir Scott, Emory Chunn and Zoa Draper; siblings, Larry J. (Yvette) Graham Sr., Geraldine E. Graham and Gregory R. (Sarita) Graham Sr.; very best friend, Gloria Thomas; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Beverly was preceded in death by her father, Rev. Thomas L. Graham; son-in-law, Morad Davis; special cousin, JoAnn Smith.
