“ Dear Friend

We suffer when a loved one dies because "death is a loss to a void beyond all understanding", so said a son who lost his father the shortly thereafter his mother died. His pain and sense of deep loss made him feel that he was "drowning emotionally." Perhaps you have similar feelings with your loss.

Some grieving parents have been told, "God picks the most beautiful flowers to take to himself in heaven." Is that so?

To get truthful answers to such questions, we need to turn to the source of life, our creator. A God of love does not use death to separate families. The scriptures plainly show that death is our "enemy" that will be destroyed by God (read 1 Corinthians 15:26). Jesus Christ demonstrated God's power over death when he resurrected Lazarus who had died (read John 11:38-44). This also shows the concern and compassion God and his son has for us.

May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.
