“ Wow, I remember Bobby Jean Humphrey! She was my neighbor on West Outer Drive. Your brother taught me how to play the charlie brown song on the piano. She was sweet and a beautiful person. What I remember as a child, there was a portrait of Bobbi in your childhood house with Bobbi with that beautiful long black hair looking like a true movie star. Nikki, I am sorry for your loss!

“ My condolence to the family. From Jamal Hamilton. the way I would describe Bobbie J Humphrey it was like being in the presence of a queen a queen of joy and laughter a queen of love a queen that did not take any stuff and let you know in our own way but you knew what you meant she was my friend and will always be my friend only more than just a friend because of hard was true like an angel helping you through any bad times and then cracking a joke to make you laugh she will always be with us in so many ways for I had the privilege of talking to her daughter even though she was so hurt she still had joy and laughter for me it was like talking to her mother Bobby and I would talk for hours on the phone and she would say something to make me laugh and then say well you know I'm crazy but I think you are is as crazy as I am and we both would laugh now she's with the most high she has no pain and no worries and I can see a smile on her face and Whispering a joke to me to the family my heart goes out to you and I know it's hard not to cry but try not to because we should celebrate her life and celebrate her transformation to be with the most high and you can't get no better than that love always Jamal Hamilton

“ I am forever grateful to have been given the opportunity to have spoken to you your last day on this earth. Though, Kevin (rest in peace) and I hadn't been married in years, I was certain you never stopped praying for me. And I believe your fierce independence worked well for you that day, when you and God Almighty closed your eyes... on your own terms.

You have taken your rest and we will run on till we meet, again.

“ My dearest Aunt Bobbie, I will forever cherish our many conversations during my morning commute. Your quiet strength and calm words of wisdom will stay with me. Now, I guess I'll take on "Waking the birds in the morning". Perhaps one of them will be you. I love and will miss you deeply.

Your niece,

“ Monday, December 18, 2017 is a day that will forever be etched in my heart and memory. It was the day I met Ms. Bobbie in Rm. 170 at Regency of Canton. Our first conversation lasted nearly 45 minutes, as I waited for my mom to arrive in the room. The bond was immediate and lasting. Every subsequent visit was a joy and a privilege. Her suffering never masked or diminished the glorious light of God that emanated from her spirit. God has given sweet rest to a precious soul!! Much love to my forever sister, Nikki!

Nikki, Although I did not have the privilege of meeting Ms Bobbie in person, after reading the many ways she touched so many people, I can see why she will be missed. Clearly, so many beautiful words written in tribute to a beautiful lady. I hope you will find comfort in the memories of your mother and allow the strength of her amazing spirit to continue to love and heal you, as she did your whole life. Peace & blessings to you and your family.
