“ Brenda, I'm so glad that I had the opportunity to tell you how much I loved you, I didn't know that would be the last time...I know that you're reigning with King Jesus, because you let everyone know Who(God Almighty) you belonged to. Take your rest cousin, and I'll shall see you again. Absent in the Body, Presence with The Lord.

To my cousins: I know that she loved you all and y'all loved her also, apparent by the closeness you all shared. God will see you all through this, just keep trusting in him because he will comfort your hearts, wipe every tear away, and remember, he's touched by the feeling our infirmities. Brenda trusted God with her Life, so let's continue together to Praise him for lending her to us. Praise God!

“ Psalm 48:14

For this God is our God forever and ever; he will be our guide even to the end. (NLT)

We pray that God will give you strength & courage in your time of bereavement. Praying that you'll also feel God's love much more and that you'll find your comfort in the presence of the Lord. I pray God pours upon you, his sweet amazing grace and overflow your heart with peace as you live in His embrace. May your heart and soul find comfort. Now and forever more.... Amen!

“ Dear Abcumby Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is fresh, even with the passage of much time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress. (Psalms 83:18, Psalms 65:2) Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again. (Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace. (Phillipians 4:7)
