“ I will always miss my big sister. She was a light on this earth, bringing so much joy to every person she crossed paths with. I have never met a more beautiful person and I was so fortunate to have her as my sister. Even through her pain, she always smiled. I do not believe she suffered while she was here with us, for she found joy in the fact that she was simply here. At least now she is not in pain.

I miss you, big sissy. My favorite person in the entire world.

What a beautiful person to have had on this earth with us for awhile. It seems she was an earth Angel with her gifts to encourage us, and to bring joy. So many of us have spoken on and experienced her light. 💕💕

I remember our trip to Louisiana with your grand father Harold . We had a great time. We laughed at every thing. It was the first time I got to spend time with you and your sister. Rest in Heaven., little cousin.

“ I read about Super Woman, watched Superwoman on Television but it wasn't until I crossed oaths with Britt that I actually met Superwoman. To say she was a strong woman would be a gross and disrespectful understatement. Her loving, caring and humble spirit was simply peerless. I'm going to miss her calls, text messages and simply hearing her say, 'Hey Uncle Anthony..' I would also like to acknowledge Ma Naylor, her incredibly loving and supportive grandmother. I remember you sleeping 20 plus consecutive nights in a chair when she was hospitalized at the University of Michigan. Your love and commitment to her wellbeing unquestionably extended her life beyond measure. You were her Guardian Angel and you took tremendous pride in fulfilling that role. God Bless.

“ It is sad to see her leave, for she meant so much to everyone who knew her. Yet we who knew her knew what she has been through and how selfish we could be to want her to stay another day going through what would be difficult for any one to have endured like she. My cousin whom I believe was an angel on earth without wings; until Our Father, who art in heaven said it was time to open your wings and overcome earthy things you have so long endured. Words can not express how much you mean, flowers could not compare the presence of your beauty; Your smile brightened the darkest of days. Cousin Brittany, you will always and forever be my Hero. Thanks for the quality of time.
