“Where do I begin. Our friendship started off craz.. I remember Byron was talking stuff about how I had Keith trained. Lol. I remember thinking I can't wait to see this Byron I'm going to tell him about his self. We met in the Riverside in 2007. When we finally met we clicked instantly. He started being at my house all the time. I remember when Briana started walking. She use to be a busy body. My oldest son Na'Keon had this Spider-Man chair, Briana loved that chair. She use to be walking all around my house with that chair, Byron use to get so mad. Lol.. I remember when I use to be scared to stay at my house at night after Keith and I broke up. So Byron would stay at my house every night until I fell asleep. He was very sweet like that. When I was pregnant with my son Dorian he would always bring me grilled chicken salads on his lunch break. When he got off work I would always have him a hot meal to eat for dinner. I remember when he lost his job. He was real stressed out. Christmas was approaching and he hadn't gotten Briana anything for Christmas yet. One day he was at my house and I handed him some money. He was shocked and stunned. He didn't want to take it being the man he is. I insisted. I told him this what friends do. Whenever I was down he was there for me so now it's my turn. I also gave him the Christmas gifts I had bought for Bri. Every since that time he worked 2 jobs to make sure that never happens again. He was one man whom loved his kids all of them and would do anything for them. There wasn't a time when he couldn't call on me or that I couldn't call on him. Our friendship was real. It was solid. The love and respect we had for one another can never be replaced. Byron Anthonie Crimes is the greatest man I have ever known. No one could ever take his place. He was a man full of love, compassion for others, joy, peace. He would help anyone. He loved his family. He was definitely a family man. Every holiday he was cooking for his family. If you was important to him he definitely made sure you knew that. Everyday before we would get off the phone we would tell one another that we loved each other. I'm very grateful that I had him in my life for 13 years. He had sent me a text one day telling me that he have no bad memories with me. That he knew I genuinely loved him. Looking at this now. It brings me joy. It's very rare that two people encounters and for over an a decade they're are no bad moments. That's the strongest bond, chemistry and love in the history of making. Our friendship was solid. Whenever he was going through something he would call or either I would call him. I would always say a prayer for him right then and there. He was my friend, my heart, my everything. His happiness meant everything to me. I stayed getting on him about not going to church when mama Crimes and the girls would go every Sunday. He knew how I felt about the Lord. Lol.. He never judged me and he accepted me for me. We knew all of each other secrets and it never changed the way we saw one another. There will never be another man as great as him. Mama Crimes I want to thank you for creating Byron and for raising him to be the best man that he was. I send my love to you, bri, Zari, Anthonie, Mora, Jermaine, and lil Jermaine. To Byron I will always love you forever. Our memories will stay in my ❤️ forever. You know already know when I make it to heaven I'm coming for you. ❤️🥺 Love you BFF

“ In school Byron was always nice and kind to me. He didn’t smile much but when he did it just made my day. Up until his passing, every time I saw him it was a hug and a smile, and he would say “ what up E”. It’s unbelievable that he’s gone but God doesn’t make mistakes. R.I.P my friend I’m glad I had the pleasure of knowing you.

To Vanessa, Jermaine, Granny Briggs, and the entire Crimes Briggs family, I cannot express how sorry I' am to hear of Byron's passing. Vanessa, I know what it's like to lose a child, I can only say to you to put your faith in god and trust that he will see you through. Clara and I loved Byron like a son and I will always remember his smile and good nature. David and Kendal, send their love and asked me to say that ,BYRON will always be a "RULER". God Bless you and keep you now and always.
