“ Memories....just where would I start? You were there, present in some of my very first memories cousin/brother. I just never imagined writing this, it really hits different. You were my brother before I had one, and we experienced many things that none of the others were blessed enough to have, from road trips to the east, to ball games throughout southeastern Michigan, and so many others. I will certainly miss your voice, your laugh and your sense of humor. Family....I am absolutely Sick and I love you all dearly.

“ Our brother-cousin. I just don't have the words. You were closer than a cousin to us and our hearts are shattered. We have spent time together just as siblings have/done/do. The days in NJ, Baltimore, VA and the memories go on; ballgames/parks, picnics, Pontiac Lake. I am so sorry Auntie Carolyn, Regina, Michael, Ronnie and Traci. Jr. was so funny, but just as loving and caring. We will miss him. Love you all!
