“ My big little brother. Thank you for all the memories. I realized you did the best you could the best way you could. I always called you a sour patch kid, because sometimes you could make people soo mad but at the same time we loved you. You would keep in touch and before we hang up you always said i love you my brother. I never cried over a man before, but you were truly my real friend and brother. Even though it was strange how we finally met, we formed a bond that lasted a quick 10 yrs. I didnt have much to give. but your love, your time, your wisdom and your HEART OF GOLD was a few of many thing that made you special. Im able to say this now because at the service i wont be able to keep it together. In closing i wont say good bye i'll say I LOVE YOU MY BROTHER and I'll see you later.
