“ My sister, Roslyn, baby sat Carlos when he was a newborn while his mother worked. My son, Jeffrey was four months older than him. So when I visited my sister the boys would be together. Little did we know, at that time, that that would be the beginning of a true and lasting relationship between them. They began kindergarten together and I recall Carlos walking assertively ahead of everyone with his "flooding" trousers and suspenders. He knew where he was going. My Jeff and Carlos spent this entire lifetime keeping in touch and seeing each other whenever Jeff came to Pontiac. Jeff and I have been sharing many thoughts and remembrances of Carlos. Some laughter and some sadness. Carlos was like another son to me, ALWAYS respectful and loving. I have struggled these past weeks with his passing but not ceasing to pray. I know when we see him again our hearts will leap with joy. GOD did not promise us an easy life here but HE does promise us a glorious life with HIM. Today is the day to choose HIM, and gain that understanding of how wonderful our transition will be. On November 18th I chose John 7:38. My deepest sympathy to Carlos' family as you say goodbye, for now.

“ My brothers use to always say, regardless of the situations, 'That's my child.'”

Carlos, my kind warm, caring, loving nephew; I know there is a beautiful place for hearts like yours; and believe that it is waiting, with peace and joy.

Though I did not see you often, when I did you were always loving, and a beautiful soft demeanor of a person.

Since my brother Timothy passed away I thought about you often. In fact You were the one I had in mind to give his stylish clothes to, knowing they would fit and you would look good in them. Then this happened.

I love you, not only because you are my brother's child, also because you are a beautiful person looking for that corner of the world where happiness resides.

I do not know what to say, because I know you still had dreams and desires; you told me so.

We all look forward yet we do not know.

I remember once said, there is nothing we can do about it.

I love you and there is nothing I can do about it.

So I ask God, give you the riches you deserves

*Like peace; make you smile again, that smile of joy, like once a boy
Make your spirit wings, and renew your soul like the first blossoms of spring*

Give you back your old neighborhood, where angels and shepherd resided.

Give you what human love could not provide

Spiritual love of happiness that never dies.

I love you and hope you enjoy the reunion.
