“ I have so many fond memories of Carolyn and our siblings growing up on Bloomfield St. We were a village of brothers and sisters. Playing kickball in he streets until the lights came on. Walking to John Store buying penny candy, Hostess cupcakes, and Faygo pops. Don't forget the Pepsi and Kools for Ms. Juanita!! We loved skating on the ice at Nebraska park in our tennis shoes until we couldn't feel our toes LOL!! Carolyn always had a big smile and something funny to say. ”

Keeping you all in my prayers John, Quanesha, her grandchildren, Elaine, Keith, and her extended family. May you all find strength in each tear you cry. Cherish her memories and she will live forever in your hearts. My heart is heavy, but I know Carolyn is rejoicing in Heaven!

God Bless and Love You
