Mrs. Carrie Jean Adams was born August 27, 1938 in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, the daughter of Lena McKeithen and Sylvester Hatter II. Carrie was a graduate of McKinley High School in 1958, Baton Rouge, LA. After graduation she moved to Michigan. Carrie married Arthur Adams and from this union they had a child. She soon sought employment with the Smart Transportation System, which she drove for them for twenty-seven years. Carrie enjoyed working with people. She made long lasting relationships with some of her riders. The riders looked forward to seeing her and she looked forward to seeing them. She was loved by so many and everyone around her meant the world to her.

Mrs. Adams leaves to cherish her memory: children, Traycie (Shawn) Turner and Troy (Ruby) McKeithen; grandchildren, Gvon Turner of Clinton Township, MI, Treshawn and Jaden Turner of Auburn Hills, MI, Troy Jr., Trevin and Teonte McKeithen all of Ferndale, MI; great grandchild, Blake Turner of Auburn Hills, MI; three sisters, Joyce Thomas and Kim Johnson both of Pontiac, MI, Patricia Nelson of Utah; two brothers, Kelvin Hatter of Pontiac, MI and Alton (Billy) Hatter; and a host of other relatives and friends including dear cousin, Inetta Brown and best friend, Naomi Keller.

Mrs. Adams was preceded in death by her husband, Arthur Adams; parents, Lena McKeithen and Sylvester Hatter II; brothers, Arthur and Sylvester Hatter III.

“ If I'd have to choose one of my favorite person's, growing up it would have to be Aunt Carol Jean! I think about my aunty often and heck I was pretty bad, but I know she would be proud of the man I've become and she plays a tremendous part of that! May Heaven take care of you!
