“ The Bible assures us: "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves"(psalms 34:18). Yes, more than anything else,a relationship with god can help you cope with the death of someone you love. Do not underestimate the value of prayer. The bible urges us: Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you" (psalm55:22). If talking out your feelings with a sympathetic friend can help,how much more will pouring out your heart to " the God of all comfort" help you.(2 corinthians 1:3) It is not that prayer simply makes us feel better. The "Hearer of Prayer" promise to give holy spirit to his servants who sincerely ask for it.(psalm65:2; Luke 11:13) And Gods holy spirit, or active force, can equip you with "power beyond what is normal" to go from one day to the next.(2corinthians 4:7) Remember: God can help his faithful servants to endure any and every problem they may face.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Childs last year in September with his son Cary[June]. I was only in his presence for a few hours and thoroughly enjoyed his company and just fell in love with this sweet little quiet spoken man. God Bless your family, and keep you even closer during this difficult time. with deepest sympathy.

“ I'm writing this letter with my sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one. It was never God's will for anyone to die, that's why at (1 CORINTHIANS 15:21) Death is call Gods enemy. And because it is Gods enemy (ISAIAH 25:8) Says He will actually swallow up DEATH forever, and the sovereign Lord Jehovah will certianly wipe the tears from all faces..... (PSALM 37:29) Says: The Righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever on it.
