“ Deepest sympathy and condolences to the Wiley family. Cathy was a sweet, kind, and vy humble person. I grew up with Cathy in the projects. I never knew Cathy to speak ill of another person. We were good friends at PCHS. Cathy will be missed. May the Lord be a comfort during these difficult times.

SM Martha McClendon Terrell

Our deepest and sincere condolences and prayers to our niece Chanel, our great nieces, Cathy's sisters and brothers and to her family and friends. Cathy was a wonderful lady of Faith, she was always so sweet and caring. We enjoyed many great times together, I practically grew up with Cathy, as she was my sister-in-law. I will definitely miss her gentle ways and spirit. May God rest her body in perfect peace and give her spirit a temple that is healthy next time. We loved you Cathy, but God loved you best, cause he always takes the best. Rest peacefully my sister, you fought a valiant battle, now enter into the joy of the Lord.
