“ To my only and true friend, Cedric Brown.
How this happen is still unreal. Just seem like yesterday we was talking and laugh about are past and how much joy and happiness we had, just like brothers. Now your in heaven looking down on us. It's still a long road ahead of you in the spirit 🌍 . Just remember life down here on 🌍 wasn't that bad because God made many ways for you to enjoy life, but one thing you miss and I know if you could change one thing and that would to spend time with your children's. Love you dear friend. R.I.P
