“ *To The Broom Family:
I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last.
Did you wonder I so calmly trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illumined every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's Will.
There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth And You shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!*

LOVE YOU CHICO YOUR SISTER LISA

LISA ALEXANDER - February 18, 2021 at 04:40 PM

I've known Chico for over 50 years. I lived across the street from his Aunt Essie, and in the early 70's they lived down the street. Two stories: When I was 6, Chico who was always so cool that we obeyed him called me and then told me to read the word that he had spelled out on the sidewalk. The word was Charles. I had no idea that his name was Charles, but I knew the word because I had a classmate named Charles. I said the word and Chico flipped. He was so surprised that I knew the word and told me that I was the smartest that he knew. His words made me feel special at age 6 and I believed him simply because cool Chico said it 😊. Another time was I was walking home from Whittier school and was in the middle of getting jumped by 3 girls. Suddenly, a familiar two door blue car pulls up and Chico's Grandmother, Aunt Frances yelled, "BayBay (My nickname) get in this car". I refused because I thought that I would get into trouble for taking a ride. Aunt Frances suddenly got out the car with a switch and made me get in.... I climbed in terrified and Chico was back there cracking up 😂. He never let me live it down. I am fortunate to literally have known Chico's whole family from Texas to Michigan due to living across from Aunt Essie. Thank you for reading a few of many memories of our childhood that was filled with great joy due to his Grandmother and her Sisters, his Great Aunts and Uncles from Texas. Rest well Chico, until we meet again.

“ Wow Chico, you're gone on to be with The Lord. You often expressed when were young, how you Believed in God and always said that He looked at your heart. I will miss your presence, but your family and I know that you're in Good Heavenly hands. You were definitely a Trip, Lol! I will continue to stay close with Edna, as I always have. Have lots of fun with Jesus. So long Chico, you are Free.
