“ Me and my brother been through everything together. From birth till his last moment on earth we had the most craziest brother relationship. He always had my side and I had his. We were given the nickname batman and robin. We were always seen together everywhere.

I cant begain to really discribe eveything we shared together, but not only with me also among his first daughter Lisa Dunlap, his grandchildren, and his friends. He truly loved our cookouts and get togethers. He would get upset If he thought we would have to postpone our get togethers. That shows just how much he loved and wanted to be close to his family.

Most people who knew of him could only speak from there brief ecounters of my brother, but it was only me, his daughter Lisa dunlap, and those who knew his hidden pains. He was often sheltered from everyone else, and its not a second thats passes that I wish I could see him coming down the street to my apartment. Its like He would call me on the regular. He hardly ever went a day without calling me. He would call me just to ask me if i am alright or do I need anythin. Im so sorry for tearing up... but on that note, thats the love that me and my brother Charles had for eachother.

To most people he will just be a memory for a brief while. life goes on for most people. For me... he calls through my heart now, he sees through my eyes, and his daughter Lisa Dunlap eyes as well now. Everytime I look into his daughter eyes I will most definttely see him looking back at me.

Im really going to miss my Big Brother. Charles, was, and will always be my best friend. My better HALF R,I,P L,I,H Love always your brother Roy L Hodges your side Buddy Robin Peace,
