Mr. Johnson was preceded in death by his grandson, Charles Johnson, IV; parents, Bishop Charles and Mother Lillian Johnson; grandparents, Deacon Clarence and Mother Elnora Keyes; and brother-in-law, Bishop Walter E. Bogan.

At Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home, we value the safety and health of our customers, staff and the general public. Therefore, we will adhere to EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 2020-11 issued by our Governor Gretchen Whitmer, regarding assemblages in the wake of the unprecedented health challenge our state and nation is facing. The Executive Order is as follows: Acting under the Michigan Constitution of 1963 and Michigan law, I order the following: 1. Beginning on April 10, 2020 at 9:00 am, and continuing through May 15, 2020 at 5:00 pm, all assemblages of more than 10 people in a single indoor shared space and all events of more than 50 people are prohibited in this state. A single indoor shared space includes but is not limited to a room, hall, cafeteria, auditorium, theater, or gallery. The prohibition on assemblages set forth in this section does not apply to: We do understand that this may pose a challenge to you and your family, but our dedicated staff is here to help guide you towards making the best decisions in memorializing your loved one.

“ Elder Johnson, was such sweetheart. I relocated to Las Vegas, from San Diego; him and Evang Black would be full force with him on the organ I mean her with the old traditional songs and him making the organ shout, omg. There was awesome preaching and he would back up Pastor Blanche omg. He was an anointed, kind, well dressed and a sense of humor he had. I didn't mention when I was provided an opportunity to speak, he would back me up also. Every since he became ill and his children picked him up, it has not been the same. My heart bleeds but yet I know where he is therefore, I can't say lost. But I will miss his beautiful smile and his playing. His family be encouraged another angel resting he will always be remembered in my heart. Peace and love. Evang. Peaches Grant, M.S. Power House COGIC will truly miss him.

“ As a child, growing up at Johnson Temple, i could remember you playing the organ, you were one of the best organist ever to touch the keys.. So many musical memories, with you and the late John Robertson... What a choir.. You always stayed the same through the years. I will miss that smile man..
