“ It really sadden my heart to learn of your passing. As a child i can remember you visiting our family on Prospect street and you always embraced me with that beautiful smile and a big hug because you and i shared that passion mark on our face. Big sis Cheryl, now you and Marilyn can sit and talk about all the fun days you two had. Forever in our hearts. Rest on Cheryl. " Shelton Family"

“ Auntie...So many memories! We came to have a lot in common too. You are so pretty to me. Ok one of my fav memories was when you & Dameia & Deon stopped by Mama' s, on a beautiful summer day, had to be like 40 years ago. It was hot out. You had on a sleeveless top, & washed your arm pits in front of everyone; amusing us all. You were just real like that! Auntie you will truly be missed...Rest well darling...Cousins Dameia & Deon, I'm so sorry, & I'm here if you need anything. I love you.
