Dalisa! Dalisa! I am extremely heartbroken and extend my condolences to you and your family during this time of tremendous loss and grief. I will definitely miss Chris and I came to know Chris as a gental giant and he would give you the shirt off his back. I admired Chris for his extreme intellect and his eloquent speaking gift. Dalisa you continue to keep your faith in God, knowing Chris is in a better place. Walking with God, hand to hand. To Jason, your father loved you and cared about you dearly. God is good!!*

““Big Poppa”, we clicked immediately all those years ago, you kept me following you when our employment allowed us, you helped me through the last heartbreak and told me to keep my chin up, the last layoff, told me girl you are one of the best, you will be back. You were a coworker, that turned into a friend, that was extended family. I will miss you, you loved me even though all our political beliefs didn't always align. We could always debate and at the end agree to disagree and still loved the GOOD HUMANS WE ARE. Heaven got one the the GOOD ONES, you are loved so much and will be missed.

I love you and all I can say is DAMMMMMMMIT

Love always,

Your Mere Bear.
