

Christina Russell-Morgan

July 29, 1976 - April 2, 2012

RUSSELL-MORGAN, Mrs. Christina Sue - age 35, passed away, Monday, April 2, 2012 at McLaren Hospital Oakland. Family hour 1:30PM Wednesday, April 11, 2012 from the Chapel of Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home, 268 N. Perry St., with funeral service commencing immediately at 2PM. Pastor Dietrick Gladden, officiating. Interment Perry Mount Park Cemetery, 878 N. Perry St. Friends and pallbearers will assemble at the funeral home 1:30PM Wednesday. Mrs. Russell-Morgan will lie in state in the Chapel of Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home, and may be viewed from 1-8PM Tuesday. Mrs. Christina Sue Russell-Morgan was born July 29, 1976 in Pontiac, Michigan the daughter of Elizabeth Russell and Joseph Schneider. She was a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church. She had a Bachelors Degree from Mary Grove College and a Masters Degree from the Center of Humanistic Studies. She loved doing crafts with her godchildren. Christina also enjoyed watching television and movies, art, painting, reading and spending time with her brother Joshua Todd. She enjoyed being on the internet, going on vacations and going out to eat. She was a Detroit Pistons fan. Mrs. Russell-Morgan leaves to cherish her memory: husband, Darryl K. Morgan; parents, Elizabeth S. Russell and Joseph Schneider; brother, Joshua Todd; six godchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

TB

“ Deepest sympathies to her father and the rest of her family. Wish we could have known her better. She will always be young and beautiful! ”

Trina Badour - April 02, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Please know you are in my thoughts. ”

April 02, 2012 at 12:00 AM

WP

“ We are heartfully sorry for the loss of your daughter, and send wishes of sympathy in your time of sorrow ”

Wesley & Frances Parker - April 02, 2012 at 12:00 AM

MS

“ Chrissy, I know we drifted apart as we got older. My moving to the other side of the Pacific didn't help with that much. I always kept you in my thoughts though and I remember all the fun times we had when I was a kid. It was always nice having an older cousin that was willing to help sneak you into rated R movies! I always thought that we would have a chance to catch up one day and it is crushing to realize that I waited too long and it will now never happen. Wherever you are now, know that I love you and I will miss you. Even though we fought like cats and dogs as kids, I really did adore you, I just showed it in awkward ways. Good night, sweetheart. I'll see you again someday. ”

Michelle Schabowski - April 02, 2012 at 12:00 AM

AR

“ Chrissy, I looked up to you so much, basically idolized you, when we were kids. I'm sure I got annoying but you never made me feel like I wasn't a part of everything. As we grew, you became not only my cousin, but my best friend. You were someone I confided in when I felt that I couldn't talk to anyone else. We laughed together, we cried together, we went through so much together. There were so many good times. Of course some were not so great, but I always knew you would be there for me, as I would for you. The last couple years we followed different paths. I feel like now I wasn't there when I should have been, but I pray that you always knew how I felt, even when I wasn't there to say it. I've always been so proud of you...of your caring, compassionate heart, your amazing artistic talents, your ability to persevere through situations that most people couldn't, your strength...For everything you were. I don't know how we all go on without you now. I just hope that we can be half as strong as you. I love you and miss you more than I thought possible. Rest in peace Kissyfur.

Angela Christine Russell - April 02, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Chrissy, I looked up to you so much, basically idolized you, when we were kids. I'm sure I got annoying but you never made me feel like I wasn't a part of everything. As we grew, you became not only my cousin, but my best friend. You were someone I confided in when I felt that I couldn't talk to anyone else. We laughed together, we cried together, we went through so much together. There were so many good times. Of course some were not so good, but I always knew you would be there for me, as I would for you. The last couple years we followed different paths. I feel like now I wasn't there when I should have been, but I pray that you always knew how I felt, even when I wasn't there to say it. I've always been so proud of you...of your caring, compassionate heart, your amazing artistic talents, your ability to persevere through situations that most people couldn't, your strength...For everything you were. I don't know how we all go on without you now. I just hope that we can be half as strong as you. I love you and miss you more than I thought possible. Rest in peace Kissyfur ^L

April 02, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ RIP Chrissy.

Greg Schneider - April 02, 2012 at 12:00 AM

TM

“ What Hope for Dead Loved Ones?

*Well, the Bible makes the promise:
"Your dead ones will live... They will rise up." And the Bible also says: The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it.
(Isaiah 26:19; Psalm 37:29)*

To have real confidence in such promise, we need to answer some basic questions: Why do people die? Where are the dead? And how can we be sure they can live again?

The Bible makes it clear that God did not originally intend for humans to die. He created the first human pair Adam and Eve, placed them in an earthly Paradise called Eden, and instructed them to have children and extend their Paradise home earth wide. They would die only if they disobeyed his instructions. (Genesis 1:28 2:15-17)

Teri Morgan - April 02, 2012 at 12:00 AM