“ This news has really broken my heart. The Taylor family are some of the best people I've ever known. I wouldn't have survived my teens without Andy, Tina, Christy, and even Tim! They were always willing to talk, laugh, or cry with me. Once Christy and I were both married we lived very far apart and were busy doing life...we lost touch, but never did I hold her anywhere but a special place in my heart. There isn't a time in my teens, 20's, 30's and early 40's that Christy isn't part of the memories. I can't think of her without seeing her long fancy nails, nose scrunched up, giant smile, and the best laugh ever that fills a room. We even lived together for a few years before I moved away. And all I can say is that even now I laugh out loud remembering those times. In my mind her and I will always be cruising around in her Cadillac C, music up, windows down, big hair flopping around with aquanet proving it's worth. Fly high Christy! Say hello to Todd and Greg. I can see you back with your mom and dad...big smile, big laugh, nose scrunched!

My deepest condolences to all that survive Christy. Her husband, brother, children, grand children, and countless people she touched.

Love you always Sweet C.

“ To Kwaysee, The Williams, and Taylor family and friends,

Christy was a beautiful light that was taken away from this world too soon. We met in junior high and thankfully stayed in touch throughout the years. My heart shattered when I heard of her passing.

My heart goes out to the family and friends that Christy leaves behind but I know one day we will see each other again. I love you Sweet C. Till we meet again.

“ This photo was recently added, and I wanted to reshare. Her smile here is exactly what I picture every time I think of Christy. And her laugh is what I hear when I think of her and I'm sure many of you do too. I'll miss you forever Sweet C. You touched so many of us and so did your sweet parents. Until we meet again. xoxo.

“ Dear Taylor & Williams Families,

I'm so incredibly sorry to hear about Christy. Christine Newman Taylor. We shared so many memories growing up together, and even though I moved out of Michigan and ended up thousands of miles away, we stayed in touch. When we last spoke in November 2024, I didn't know she was sick. I'm heartbroken to be learning about her passing now—and through Facebook.

I was going through some things in my own life, and I'm just so sad I didn't know what she was facing. I wish I'd had the chance to be there or to talk with her, even just to offer support in any small way.

Christy was a true friend—since we were probably 10 or 11 years old. She was funny, thoughtful, and real. She always gave me honest advice, the kind that came from a place of wanting to protect and care. I loved her deeply and always will.

Her voice was so unique, and I can still hear her laugh in my mind—it's something I'll never forget.

I know how much she loved her family and how deeply she grieved the loss of her mom and dad. I hope with all my heart that she's with them now, surrounded by love and peace. I'm also keeping Tim and his family in my prayers.

Sending love and strength to her husband, children, close friends, and everyone she touched in her daily life. Christy was special. She will always be remembered.

May God hold you all in the palm of His hand.

With love and sympathy,

“ Dear Kwaysee, Tim, family and friends,

My heart goes out to you during this difficult time. May your memories of Christy bring you comfort and peace and may you find strength in the love that surrounds you. ❤️

I have so many memories of Christy that I will forever cherish. She had such a beautiful spirit that shined through her infectious smile. She was so full of love and warmth and I felt that every time I saw her. We spent lots of time together in junior high and high school. I went on trips with her and her amazing parents, Tina and Andy. Disney World in Orlando was my favorite. We had so much fun together. Tina and Andy would take us on summer weekends to the Detroit Golf Club, I'll never forget laying out by the pool for hours, eating frozen snickers and checking out the guys.

And her dear brother Tim, would take us to concerts...bless his heart, not sure he always wanted to ;) ...U2, RunDMC, New Edition..thanks Tim, that meant a lot to us.

And then high school....the memories go on and on...my heart is full of them and I am grateful to have had such a friend. We grow and move and things change, but every time we would see each other, it was just like yesterday. That type of friendship is immeasurable. Christy will always hold a very special place in my heart.

Sending you all so much love along with my deepest sympathy,

*Love,

“ When I was at a small weight, Chris told me get my s together now! Lol
She was always super supportive and able to get me out of a funk! I'm gonna miss her crazy sense of humor, her smile that lit up the room and her strength that God was in control! I will miss her dearly and I have nothing but fond memories about her to remember. We were cousins but called each other Sis instead.
