“ Deacon Anderson, I am eternally thankful to God for the divine privilege of being part of your life and that of Evangelist Anderson. Though we never had a formal title, you both embodied the spirit of godparents to me. I vividly recall how you and Evangelist Anderson selflessly took my sister and me under your wings, embracing us as your own and taking us with you on Sundays after church. That really meant a lot to us my parents had seven children so it was a good reprieve to get away sometimes and feel like there are only two. It was nothing short of a blessing when God allowed our paths to cross again at her funeral, and I have been deeply inspired by your unwavering faith amidst adversity and your unrelenting love for God. Thank you for graciously allowing me to call you Pops. Rest well, your godson, Davis Scott II.

Stephanie, I can't thank you enough for the countless requests we placed in your hands, and you delivered time after time. My Dad loved his senior community @ The Village, and treasured that corner lot. 🥰

“ My name is Gary Simms. I met Chris after moving to the area and starting Dialysis at Fresenius Kidney care.

I was saddened by the news of his passing. Chris was one of the most genuine people that I've ever known. I've described him as a great presence...a greater soul ...and an individual with outstanding natural integrity and compassion.

I will miss my friend and our conversations.

I know that he can now rest. I know that those who loved him are forever blessed by having known him.

Thank you Chris! Thank you my good friend.

“ Thanking God for Deacon Anderson and the life he lived for Jesus Christ. I had a close relationship with his late wife Evangelist Anderson and we would gather in their home to pray. He was a quiet and gentle spirit. A man who deeply trusted and loved the Lord. My husband and I will truly miss him and he will always be remembered. Precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of a saint. He is resting peacefully in the arms of Jesus.

Love you Bro. Chris

“ Cuz, you never made it over for Thanksgiving and that was something we both were looking forward too. I'm going to truly miss you and every time I see something "Lions" paraphernalia, my thoughts will quickly go to you and your Lions' Den. A light has gone out in our family. But the memories will always remain with that smile, laughter and soft spoken voice of yours. Rest my Cuz...Later ❤️. Love, Robin McCoy and Family
