“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to you and your family during the loss if your loved one. I would like to share a comforting thought from the bible at rev 21:3&4 were it says Jehovah will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. I hope your family draw strength from that scripture.

“ *To the family of Chris Redmond:
I would like to express my condolences and I pray that you would find strength in knowing that he is no longer suffering from the cares of this world. God has called him home to be with him. I pray that the Lord will continue to strengthen you as you go through this tough time. Although Julian and I will not be able to be there to celebrate his life, my prayer is that you continue to reach out to Julian and remind him of his dad and encourage him to continue to make him proud. Praying for the family.*

“ Dearest Uncle:

I will never forget what you spoke when Granny passed: "Listen, if God calls me home tomorrow I'm good. I got mine. I have lived a great life. God is good all the time!" Thankfully, you made it another year. You testified of God's goodness to see your 50th birthday. We witnessed a miracle a few months ago when it seemed we would lose you. God did it again!

Now you're home with Jesus, Granddaddy, and Granny. What a joy, yet we mourn. I will miss your bright smile, exuberant laughter. I love you always!
