“ Mr. Cleveland Bobo was the ideal role model. I can recall him teaching us to concentrate while bowling on a Saturday Afternoon. He was certainly a Man of God who offered great words of wisdom, when we were troubled and making a lot of noise while visiting his home on South Anderson Street. Certainly, Daddy Bobo was a fashion enthusiast who would stop you in your path to straighten your tie. Even as a world traveler, Mr. Bobo would reach out and inquire if I had everything required to place in my luggage; by all means he was a concerned and caring vessel. His love and legacy will not be forgotten throughout the City of Pontiac, Michigan.
