“ I did not have the opportunity to know "cookie" as long as many....but in the short time that I had conversation with him he was a man of principle. He told you what was on his mind whether you liked wanted to hear it or not.

Cookie would attend the city council meetings quite often sitting in the back with very few words to many that sit around him. But he was up on the issues at hand. He will be sadly missed by many on Thursdays at the city council meetings. REST IN PEACE.
