Clifton Levon "Piggy" Hunt was born December 31, 1955 in Pontiac, Michigan the son of Mary and the late James Clifton Hunt. Clifton attended school in the Pontiac School System and graduated from Pontiac Central High School. Clifton was employed at Pontiac Motors where he met his wife, Terri. Together they resided in Pontiac, and raised nine children. The love he had for his wife, children and grandchildren was unconditional. Clifton loved being with his family; they meant the world to him. Everybody knew how "Piggy" was about family. He was an outstanding husband, superhero father, marvelous grandfather, son, brother, uncle and a great man all around. Clifton's passions were working on cars, cooking, especially for family gatherings and helping others; he was a jack of all trades. To have known "Piggy" was to love him. Clifton's smile and presence could light up any room and he will be greatly missed but never forgotten.
