“ My Daddy, Clyde Word was one of a kind, a maverick. I feel that God broke the mold when he made him. To me he was like a super nova. He loved his family, and he tried to be there for them. "If I can help somebody " was a common theme in his life. My parents were married for 63 years, which in this day and age is very rare. That shows the depth of commitment that they had for each other. Even though there is this emptiness, I take comfort in knowing that Daddy was saved. "absent from the body, present with the Lord", and his suffering is over. I know that one day, I'll see him again. Bye for now, Daddy.
I love you, your #1 daughter Lise.
