I can't get you out of my head Cole. Every night I have some sort of dream or thought of you. I close my eyes, and I see your face. Every day I think about what would have been if I wasn't afraid and went for what I wanted. I hate so bad this happened to you, and I'm trying so hard not to hold grudges. But I just don't understand nor see why this could have happened to you of all people. I wish I could have saw you one last time, held you one last time.

“ Remember the times we shared laughing and joking about how we would change things in our life when we get the chance. We did just that. You will forever be missed and truly loved. It was such a blessing getting to know you and giving me the chance to feel whole and appreciated. I am blessed for being able to have had you in our lives for a short period of time, it was the best.

“ This memory is from the sixth grade Mama Rita gave us money and we bought Super Soakers and we took them to school on the bus we were spraying everyone with water outside of the bus and then after school we sprayed everyone up and then we got in deep trouble then we got a whoopin by Mama Rita and my dad Dave he took it easy on us because he knew Mama Rita got us first LOL the good days truly will be remembered for the rest of my life! I love you Cole my best friend my brother I truly hope I make you proud and I'll do everything in my power to live up to your legacy!

“ I have so many memories of us my friend I don't know which one to post. I remember the dinner for my mom to honor her as being a colon cancer survivor you said you would be there on time no matter what, and you were. A great guy gone wayyy too soon. My heart 💔 is literally broken into a thousand pieces. R.I.H my Colefishe... #LLCole #CocaColaCole
