“ When I first met Connie, I was searching for a place for my Granddaughter and myself to live. Connie happened to be the Property Manager for a house soon to be for rent. Connie adored my Granddaughter, and my Granddaughter adored her right back. Sometimes, things just work out that way. I'll post a few pictures of Connie helping to assemble a bike for my Granddaughter, as well as one of it being enjoyed.

“ Connie has such a generous heart. I was blessed to know her and chat with her before church services began over the years. She was firm in her values and principles. She was such a hard worker! I admired her example. While losing a friend is hard for us left behind, she is having a glorious reunion with past friends and family. Till we meet again, Connie!

“ Thinking of your family and especially praying for your son during this difficult time. You have been a great neighbor of mine for over 20 years and I will miss waving hello and seeing you out back on occasion. Coni, you were a kind and wonderful neighbor and you will be deeply missed on our street.

William I remember you and your mom well when you all were in Covington. She was a very sweet sister and dedicated to the Lord. You were just a little guy and in grade school then. Thinking of you and sending you my very best. Sincerely, Jeanie Arritt

Connie and young William (Anderson as we knew him) were dear friends of the family and frequent guests to our home. I remember that Connie was stalwart in life and the Gospel and of deep faith, the stalk of pioneers who persevered trial along the enduring trail. We were happy to share her company and I know my parents had a deep affinity for her. She was a mother who very much loved her son, and was gracious and patient toward all. I'm saddened that we were separated by so many years and miles, but she and her son have never been forgotten. I have no doubt she is rejoined with those she loves and even reacquainted with my parents, who also have passed onto the next life. I hope to hear their stories again...but as for today, I'm glad to have known her and am able to call her my friend. God Bless those whom she has left behind and pray they may feel the Comforter, who gives the assurance we will be rejoined again.
