“Connie and I worked together many years ago at MetLife. We became friends outside of work. As, I turned 50 this year, I can remember attending Connie's 50th birthday dinner almost 20yrs ago. She was my go-to seamstress when I needed some items stitched up. Connie designed & sewed my daughter's prom dress 14yrs ago. She was always pleasant, smiling and super proud of her family. She loved you all so very much. Sending you my condolences & prayers during this very difficult time. Get your rest Connie! God says well done daughter.

Sending comforting prayers to the Thompson family I meant Constance one or two times and she left a memorable impression with her beautiful smile. Her brother William Johnson I have known him for almost 50 years and I pray that God give him and his family strength to walk this journey may you all find comfort with each other in this time of need. Keeping you all in my prayers. From the Walker family. ❤️
