“ Corey was a great young man. He was always respectful, encouraging and a comic who enjoyed his friends. I remember Corey, Mariah, Andrew, Donte, Be'Jon and his sister along with a few other Herrington Hills kids walking talking and sitting on my porch at the top of the hill just being kids. I never worried about those kids sitting on my porch because I knew you both were watching just as frequently as I was and the parents of the other children. I pray that Jesus has mercy on me and allows me to go before either of my children but if his plan for me is to walk the same path as you I shall with my head held high and my faith in his holy name. Corey is with Jesus in the place Jesus went to prepare for all who believe and follow his commandments. Please find strength and courage in Jesus' promise. May the peace of the Lord be with you and your family.

“ To the family,

You are definitely in in my prayers during this time, I only met Corey once at his Aunts Nichole's house and he seemed like a very nice young man. My family too is affected by Corey's passing as it is a small world, Corey was very good friends with my niece Ashley Willis since they were quite young and he used to walk her home from school sometimes and they called each other "play brother" and "play sister". She is very saddened as well, and we are all trying to stay strong. As one "Auntie" to another....Nichole and Tanya I love you both stay strong.

“ We would like to extend our deepest condolences to the family. You all are constantly in our thoughts and prayers. Just keep it in prayer and God will bring you through.

Corey we believe that God must have some really big plans for you to take you so soon from your loved ones! He must have needed another Angel. You truly will be missed by everyone.

Love,

The Chambers Family

“ My heartfelt sympathy goes out to the family of this young man. Remember Proverbs 3:5: "Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding."

May God strengthen and keep you during this difficult time.
